

Happy colours ... the pleasure of discovering

Hello, today you will discover Sainte Livrade sur Lot. Follow the colours and you will find your way ...!! Happy discovery!!

Sainte Livrade sur Lot is a town that has existed for hundreds of years. The first man was there from the first Iron Age. The origins of the village of Sainte-Livrade d'Olt date back to the Gallo-Roman period and it became a bastide in 1289.

Sainte-Livrade has become a multicultural city being the land of welcome for:

- 1920 - 1930 the Italians, leaving misery and fascism
- 1930 - 1950 the Spaniards
- 1950, the Portuguese fleeing poverty or dictator
- 1956, 1200 French Indochinese, soldiers and refugees, received at the Reception Center for French Indochina (CAFI = Centre d'Accueil des Français d'Indochine)
- 1962-1963 French from Algeria: Pieds-Noirs, soldiers and harkis repatriated at the end of the Algerian war
- 1970 - 1990 migrant workers from the Maghreb
- Dutch and British

That's why you're going to learn lots of languages. In town and on the banks of the Lot in Saint Martin Park, you will find plenty of "socks" on lampposts, traffic-poles and barriers ...

On each 'sock', you will find its name and two languages: French and another language. Up to you to find !! We start with the Tour du Roy. According to the sources, the tower is a remnant of a castle built by Richard-Cœur-de-Lion, a tower within the city walls. During the Revolution, the tower became the property of the municipality, which made it into a prison. The tower was listed as a historical monument on July 16, 1925.

How many "socks" do you find on the roundabout. Do not cross, look from across the road !!! Have a good look!

- There is a pizzeria next to the Tour du Roy, how many languages are written on its door ???

Head towards Place Castelvieilh. On the wall to your right you will find a large fresco.

1. What does it represent?
2. How many "socks" are there in the square?
3. What number has the rainbow?
4. What languages do you find?
5. How long do you think the sock is?

6. What big building do you find there and what happens there?

Go up to rue National by the stairs next to the cinema ...

... Mark how many stairs there are

7. How many stores do you have up to café Le France?

8. What is the name of the (yellow) tearoom next door?

9. What 'fake' stores have you seen?

10. Cross the street towards the Halle. What do you find there?

21. What big building do you find and what is its name ???

22. How many socks are there?

23. Attention, there is one label without a sock! Who is it??

24. Which sock do you find the most beautiful of all socks ????

The small building overlooking the Lot is the former ferryman's house. Before there were bridges, there was the possibility of crossing the Lot by ferry. The ferryman was sailing with this ferry. Today, the municipality has restored this house and made toilets. Behind, on the Lot side, you will find a cafeteria to quench your thirst! (July August). The rest of the year there is coffee in the centre.

In the square below you can create your own sock!!!
We will knit the most beautiful patterns!
